

UNIVERSITY OF JAFFNA, SRI LANKA
FACULTY OF ALLIED HEALTH SCIENCES
Second Year First Semester Examination in BScHons(Nursing) – 2022/Proper 16th Batch

NURNP 2131 NURSING PRINCIPLES & PROCEDURES III – PAPER II

Date: 14.12.2023

Time: 1 hour

ANSWER ALL THREE QUESTIONS

1.

- 1.1. Define the following terms.
- 1.1.1. Hypoxia (05 Marks)
- 1.1.2. Hypoxemia (05 Marks)
- 1.1.3. Cyanosis (05 Marks)
- 1.2. List four (4) purposes of nebulization therapy. (20 Marks)
- 1.3. List two (2) indications and two (2) contra indications for nebulization therapy. (20 Marks)
- 1.4. List the medications which can be administered through nebulization. (20 Marks)
- 1.5. Write five (5) possible nursing diagnosis for the administration of nebulization. (25 Marks)

2.

- 2.1. List the parenteral routes of medication administration. (20 Marks)
- 2.2. List five (5) forms of medications which can be administered through oral route. (15 Marks)
- 2.3. “The oral route is used to administer the medication which can be taken for long period.’ Briefly discuss why the oral route is preferred for long term use than the other routes. (25 Marks)
- 2.4. A nurse who is in injection unit, administering the injections to the patients as per the prescription/ medical order. List the components to be checked in the medical order/prescription by the nurse/before administering the injection. (20 Marks)
- 2.5. Briefly describe the elements that need to be considered in patient education while administering the medication (20 Marks)

3.

- 3.1. List five (5) dry heat application methods. (20 Marks)
- 3.2. List the benefits of heat application. (25 Marks)
- 3.3. List the effects of prolonged hot applications. (25 Marks)
- 3.4. Briefly explain the principles involved in hot & cold application. (30 Marks)

