

UNIVERSITY OF JAFFNA, SRI LANKA
FACULTY OF ALLIED HEALTH SCIENCES

First Year Second Semester Examination in BScHons (Nursing) - 2023/ Proper 18th Batch

NURNP 1231 NURSING PRINCIPLES & PROCEDURES II – PAPER II

Date: 17.06.2025

Time: 1 hour

ANSWER ALL THREE QUESTIONS

1. A 46-year-old male known diabetic patient came to the surgical ward with the admission form.

He complains of painful urination and passing less amount of urine.

1.1. List the parameters that to be measured routinely at the time of admission. (15 Marks)

1.2. List the forms that to be attached along with admission form for this patient. (15 Marks)

1.3. As a nurse, how will you perform the admission of this patient effectively (20 Marks)

1.4. The medical officer ordered few blood investigations for this patient.

List five (5) blood investigations and one purpose for each (25 Marks)

1.5. Write the nurses responsibility in collecting the specimen and transport (25 Marks)

2. A 55-year-old male was admitted to the medical ward with the history of fever for 3days, cough, and malaise and vomited three times on the day of admission. He is a known diabetes mellitus and hypertension patient. On admission the T- 101°F, P- 85 bpm, R – 24 /min, BP- 150/90mmHg. RBS- 180mg/dl. Patient complains that he feels dizziness and body pain. As a nursing student you have been allocated this patient for providing nursing care on the day on admission.

2.1. Based on the above history, List the subjective data and objective data of this patient (25 Marks)

2.2. List the identified needs of this patient in the priority order (25 Marks)

2.3. Based on the identified needs which you mentioned in 2.2, write the nursing care plan for this patient with minimum of five (5) nursing diagnoses. (50 Marks)

3.

3.1. Define the following terms

3.1.1. Pathogenicity (10 Marks)

3.1.2. Medical asepsis (10 Marks)

3.1.3. Nosocomial infection (10 Marks)

3.2. List five (5) Personal protective equipment used in health care settings (15 Marks)

3.3. Briefly write the nurses responsibility in barrier nursing (25 Marks)

3.4. Briefly explain the principles of sterile technique (30 Marks)